Annual Poster Day Event

Venue: Learning Commons Room 331/337

Timing: 12:00 -3:00 pm

This is a community outreach event aimed at providing education and awareness. The event will begin with a brief training session which will provide insight on how to talk about human trafficking, how to recognize it, and what to do if you believe trafficking is occurring. Volunteers will be divided into groups and will distribute informational posters within the community at local businesses, hotels, bus stations, and airports.
